

We're in good company...
"Highest Rated 2007's from Sonoma"

2007 Rodney Strong Reserve Chardonnay, 93 points, Wine Spectator

"Floral honeysuckle, ripe fig and melon scents are rich, full-bodied, elegant and refined, showing a light touch of toasty vanilla oak on the finish, where the flavors turn subtle and delicate." -J.L.

California Chardonnay shines...

- James Laube, Wine Spectator

"The varietal remains the Golden State's most popular white, and year-in, year-out manages to produce scores of enticing wines across a wide range of styles and price points. My highest rated 2007's from Sonoma include several bottlings each from Peter Micheal, Aubert, Chasseur, Paul Hobbs (the WalkerStation being the best) and Martinelli, along with the Rodney Strong Reserve (93, $40) and the Ramey Ritchie Vineyard (92, $70). In Napa, Alpha Omega has taken a big step up in quality with its 2007 (94, $52)."
