

2007 Sonoma County
Cabernet Sauvignon

89 Points

Brings a welcome restraint to Cabernet, offering a dry, somewhat tannic wine of great elegance. Easy to like for its balanced flavors of blackberries and black currants, with gentle influences of oak. Pretty good price for a wine of polish and sophistication. Editor's Choice . - S.H.

Wine Enthusiast, April, 2010

2007 Sonoma County
Cabernet Sauvignon

89 Points

Brings a welcome restraint to Cabernet, offering a dry, somewhat tannic wine of great elegance. Easy to like for its balanced flavors of blackberries and black currants, with gentle influences of oak. Pretty good price for a wine of polish and sophistication. Editor's Choice . - S.H.

Wine Enthusiast, April, 2010

2007 Sonoma County
Cabernet Sauvignon

89 Points

Brings a welcome restraint to Cabernet, offering a dry, somewhat tannic wine of great elegance. Easy to like for its balanced flavors of blackberries and black currants, with gentle influences of oak. Pretty good price for a wine of polish and sophistication. Editor's Choice . - S.H.

Wine Enthusiast, April, 2010

2007 Sonoma County
Cabernet Sauvignon

89 Points

Brings a welcome restraint to Cabernet, offering a dry, somewhat tannic wine of great elegance. Easy to like for its balanced flavors of blackberries and black currants, with gentle influences of oak. Pretty good price for a wine of polish and sophistication. Editor's Choice . - S.H.

Wine Enthusiast, April, 2010